Of Judge Taft is Fast
Being Completed

SLATE HAS BEEN NAMED

Senator Knox Heads the List for Secretary of State

Herrick May be Placed and Secretary Garfield May be Retained.

Washington, Dec. 19.—President-elect Taft is making progress in the construction of his cabinet. Having found in Senator Philander Knox of Pennsylvania, a man worthy to be the successor of Elihu Root as secretary of state, makes it less difficult for him to select such of his official advisers as have not yet been chosen. Following are the cabinet officers already designated—that is to say, unofficially:

Secretary of State—Senator Knox of Pennsylvania.

Secretary of War—Luke E. Wright of Tennessee.

Attorney-General—George W. Wickersham of New York (probably.)

Postmaster-General—F. H. Hitchcock of Massachusetts.

Secretary of Agriculture—James Wilson of Iowa.

Secretary of the Interior—James R. Garfield of Ohio (perhaps.)

The qualification as to Secretary Garfield is made for the reason that while it seems likely he will be retained in his present capacity, it is not yet certain by any means.

Had Representative Theodore E. Burton of Cleveland, been willing to consider seriously the question of becoming secretary of the treasury, instead of remaining in the senatorial race in Ohio and obstructing the path of Charles P. Taft, brother of the President-elect, Garfield would have become ineligible for reappointment. It is possible yet that he will retire on the fourth of March, but this will be only in the event that another Ohio man is picked for a Cabinet portfolio.

For secretary of the treasury Mr. Taft has several men under consideration, namely, Postmaster-General George Von L. Meyer of Massachusetts; Robert Bacon, assistant secretary of state of New York; Myron T. Herrick, ex-governor of Ohio, and E. F. Swinney, president of the First National bank of Kansas City, Mo.

The men to whom he is giving the most thought just now are Meyer and Bacon, with Colonel Herrick next. Should the ex-governor be invited to take the place which Secretary Cortelyou will relinquish at the close of the Roosevelt administration, it would signify that a Western man would succeed Secretary Garfield as the head of the Interior Department. Protests against the appointment of Bacon have been received by the President-elect for the reason that, prior to his entering the State Department, he was a junior partner of J. Pierpont Morgan, it being asserted that this would bring the treasury department altogether too close to Wall street.

Augusta, Ga., Dec. 19.—Myron T. Herrick, former governor of Ohio, is mentioned as the next secretary of the treasury. Judge Taft is said to have practically decided on Herrick for the position.

RUEF READY FOR SENTENCE.

San Francisco, Dec. 19.—Abe Ruef, convicted grafter, appeared in court today to receive sentence. Attorneys are making an effort to stay the sentence and delay further action in the case. The offense is punishable with one to 15 years.

Sentencing was postponed until next Thursday.

SALOONS TO MOVE

ACROSS RIVER

Parkersburg, W. Va., Dec. 19.—As a result of Marietta, O., going dry, at yesterday's election, a movement has been started to have saloons in Williamsstown, across the river from Marietta. Temperance people will fight this.

Present Senator from Pennsylvania, who will be the leading member of President-elect Taft's Cabinet.

ADVOCATE CONTEST ENDS NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Boys and Girls Working for Cash Prizes—They Will Appreciate Help from Their Friends—The 14 Leaders.

While many of the boys and girls in the Advocate contest brought in new subscriptions yesterday, the relative standing of the 14 leaders remains as it did 24 hours ago.

The contestants are closely lunched and a little extra effort may easily place one now down in the list well towards the front.

The contest ends next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, so only three working days remain—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Each new 5 weeks' Daily subscription counts one point. This costs the subscriber 50 cents. A ten weeks' subscription ($1.00) counts the contestant 2 points, 15 weeks' 3 points, etc.

One hundred dollars will be given by the Advocate in 14 prizes. In case of a tie the prize will be divided. The prizes range from $25 to $2.50.

Had the contest ended this morning the prizes would have been awarded to these boys and girls:

1—Thekla Ruff, 193 Jefferson street.

- 2—Andrew Goebel, 338 West Locust.
- 3—John Callan, 69 South Fourth.
- 4—Ren Comistord, Hebron, Ohio.
- 5—George Winters, 45 South Fifth.
- 6—Roy Klefer, 37 North Fifth.
- 7—John Papanek, Seroco street.
- 8—William Giblin, Seroco street.
- 9—Wilbur Gault, 245 Boylston ave.
- 10—Harold Vogel, 286 South Second.
- 11—Wm. Schopen, 373 Woods ave.
- 12—Frank Ryan, 54 Dewey.
- 13—Florence Loewendick, 29 East Locust.
- 14—Charles Mast, 342 Buckingham.

Some of the other contestants have been "sawing wood" and saying little. They may figure in the contest a little later.

Those who do not win prizes will be paid for every new subscriber they secure.

Now is the time to work. It's over next Wednesday. The prizes are worth the effort. Get busy now.

New subscriptions may be sent or brought to this office and votes credited to any one of the candidates.

SENATOR WHO WILL HEAD SECRET SERVICE INQUIRY

Washington, Dec. 19.—Senator Eugene Hale as acting chairman of the appropriations committee has promised a searching investigation of the United States secret service department in response to Senator Aldrich's resolution. The resolution resulted from the clause in the President's message relative to the act of Congress limiting the scope of the secret service force. The Senate will act upon knowing what special operatives the bureau has employed, what they were employed for and at whose direction they were placed on the government payroll.

CONGRESS HAS ADJOURNED.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Both houses adjourned this afternoon until January 4, 1909.

OPTION ELECTION RESULTS.
Dry Counties ..... 60
Wet Counties ..... 9

Marietta, Dec. 19.—Washington county joined the 59 other dry counties by voting dry yesterday, making the three-score by a majority of 1,402 in a total vote of 11,000. Marietta gave the wets a majority of 311. The county districts, with few exceptions, gave large majorities. There is great rejoicing among the temperance people. Thirty-seven saloons, one brewery, one distillery and two beer agencies are affected.

CLOSE PENDING DECISION.
Columbus, Dec. 19.—The saloons in Hancock county will not be permitted to remain open pending the decision of the Supreme court as to the constitutionality of the Rose county local option law. That tribunal refused the injunction asked for by the attorney representing Jacob Gasman, of Findlay. The question of constitutionality will be passed upon when the case is reached in its order by the court.

BOATS FURNISH WET GOODS.
Manchester, Dec. 19.—Since the banishment of the saloons from this place under the provisions of the Rose law, liquor is sold openly from gasoline boats plying the river in front of the town. As the proprietors of these boats have taken out government licenses to sell, the authorities are at their wits' end in an effort to stop the traffic.

WET GOODS SEIZED.
Wellston, Dec. 19.—The first arrest under the search and seizure clause of the Rose local option law since the county voted dry was made here yesterday when the grocery store conducted by Michael Corkery was raided and two barrels and two jugs of wet goods were confiscated.

FIRST DRY VICTIM.
Zanesville, Dec. 19.—Less than 26 hours after the saloons were closed here an arrest for the violation of the Rose law was made, the victim being Loren Cameron, a butcher. He is charged with having given liquor to Roscoe Morrison. He will be arraigned today. The minimum fine is $50.

JAIL BREAKER

MARSHAL AND WOUND-ING TWO OTHERS.

Posse in Pursuit and Man Will Probably be Lynched if He is Caught.

Higbee, Mo., Dec. 19.—Threatening to lynch him if captured, citizens are on the trail of a man who escaped jail after killing Deputy Marshall Magruder and wounding Marshall Frank Cain and Earl Magruder.

While the search is on a guard surrounds the jail, which holds two pairs of the escaped man. It is believed that he is wounded and his capture is expected. The men were searched before being put in the cells, but one had a revolver concealed. Magruder started to enter the cell of the escaped man when he was shot, dead Cain and young Magruder were then shot and the man escaped.

PRESS POST MANAGER DEAD.

Cincinnati, Dec. 19.—Fred E. Harris, 23, general manager of the Columbus Press Post, died this morning of pneumonia in a hospital here.

BULLETS FOR ROOSEVELT'S HUNT AND TWO MEN WHO AID HIM

Washington, Dec. 19.—This cut shows some of the ammunition President Roosevelt will use to kill big game in Africa. The three cartridges and the pierced block of steel are reproduced actual size. The steel plate is five-sixteenths of an inch thick, and the hole in the center of it was made by a soft nose, steel jacketed bullet fired from a 35-caliber auto-loading rifle. The large cartridge shown in the cut is to be used in a 12-gauge

COL. TAYLOR DESCRIBES HANGING OF CAPT. RANKIN

Union City, Tenn., Dec. 19.—Men who never dropped a tear, wept like children today when Col. R. Z. Taylor, 62, feeble, with white hair hanging about his shoulders, told between sobs, of the killing of Captain Rankin, by West Tennessee night riders on the night of October 19, in the trial before Judge Jones. Col. Taylor told how he and Captain Rankin had gone to the Walnut log hotel, how they were awakened by from 25 to 30 masked men and marched half a mile to a deserted spot along the lake.

"They led us under a forked tree," said Colonel Taylor. "They said they were going to kill us. They threw the end of a rope over the branch of a tree and tied the other end around the neck of Captain Rankin. Then they pulled him up. As his feet left the ground, he cried, 'Oh, gentlemen, don't do that, you're killing me. Suddenly I heard a gun shot and saw a hole in Captain Rankin's coat. I made a dash for the lake and stayed under water till my breath gave out. I came up on the other side of a log which they fired at.'"

He told how he waited until the night riders, thinking him killed, went away. He waited some hours, then made his way into Lake county. Captain Taylor said after Captain Rankin was hung, he made his way by the light of the stars until morning. He was nearly dead of thirst when he stopped at a house he located. He said the leader of the night riders resembled Garrett Johnson now under arrest.

SUSPECTS TREACHERY

Will Move to Sanitarium for a Week's Stay

Reports Say That Dutch Fleet
Will Extend Help to Revolutionists.

Berlin, Dec. 19.—Upon receipt of a cablegram from an adherent in Venezuela that acting President Gomez had proclaimed himself president, President Castro immediately placed an order for 50,000 Mauser rifles. If the suspected treachery of Gomez is confirmed Castro with his adherents will plunge Venezuela into a civil war to regain his power.

President Castro will move to a sanitarium tomorrow for a week's stay. He will be put on a diet and have to stop drinking for the doctors to make an examination later. He has rented the entire sanitarium for a week.

Reports say the Dutch fleet off Venezuela is ready to aid the revolutionists in the war against Castro. Holland is anxious to see Castro put out of power. No official notification to Holland that Venezuela had declared war has been made yet, but if true Holland will demand indemnity in a final settlement of the dispute.

GOVERNMENT

MAY TAKE HAND AND ENDEAVOR TO STOP LAWLESSNESS OF NIGHT RIDERS.

Threats Have Been Sent Through the Mail and Uncle Sam May be Heard From.

Union City, Tenn., Dec. 19.—The federal government may be called upon to stop the lawlessness of night riders in the western part of the state. Prominent citizens continue to receive threatening letters. These may be turned over to the postal authorities and an effort made to reach the offenders for misuse of the mails. Many people receiving letters are afraid to tell the authorities, for fear of violence at the hands of the night riders.

Boston, Dec. 19.—Edward Fierman of Somerville, says he gave Maud Hamlin, murdered by James Harmon, a ring not long ago. This, it is thought, may be the cause of Hamlin shooting the girl yesterday. The girl's mother says Hamlin has been acting queerly of late and she thinks him insane.

THE ART OF RESTING.

All Nervous Women Should Learn
How to Spare Themselves.

The secret of accomplishing things in this world is to take good care of yourselves.

If you never oiled your sewing machine would you expect it to work for you?

Well, it is the same thing with your body.

I have a friend on the verge of nervous prostration, and yet, although she suspects it, she will not rest for one minute. She is on the go the whole time. After a day spent in shopping she will go out to dinner and then spend the evening dancing or playing bridge well into the small hours. She never takes a nap in the daytime, and she never leans back in an easy chair and does nothing.

What can you expect her to have but bad health?

If you want to be really strong, all you nervous women, spend a whole day in bed occasionally.

This is not laziness, but sheer common sense.

Just lie there and do nothing for one whole day. Have your meals brought to you, and if you don't want to sleep, why, just read some light, interesting novel.

It can't be done? Oh, yes, it can. The household machinery can go on without you for one day if spending that day resting means that you can accomplish twice as much when you get up again. A stitch in time saves nine, but a rest in time saves one a big illness.

It is not the people who keep "on the go" who accomplish the most. They give that impression, but they don't do half as much as the quieter, more self-controlled woman does. She knows the secret of sparing herself when she doesn't need her strength and of storing it up for the time when she does, and this wisdom means happiness, health and a great deal of success for her in this world.

Don't let your mind keep working. It does no good to worry through the small hours of the night. You cannot do anything then, and in the morning when you can you will be exhausted.

Remember that there is a time for everything and that everything works better when it is done in its proper time, so don't worry and think over serious things when you should be resting. Learn to work thoroughly and learn to rest thoroughly. One is just as important as the other.

Then there is the stomach to be considered. Let that have a vacation occasionally. Try eating only two meals a day composed of the very simplest, most nutritious food. Give up pies and sweets for a month. Figure out what your system needs and find out what foods are composed of that particular element.

Diet for a couple of days. We are like machines, and if we don't learn to go easy on the different parts of that machine there is sure to be a breakdown.

THIS AND THAT

Some people are solving the problem of a Christmas gift for out of town friends by ordering the Advocate sent for a year. The subscription price by mail in advance is $2.50. Every former resident of this city would be delighted with such a gift.

"I congratulate you upon producing quick results," was the substance of a telephone message from Mr. Edw. Kibler this afternoon.

Mr. Kibler has just phoned a lost cuff button advertisement to this of-rice but no sooner had he done so than Mr. A. L. Norton notified him that he had found the missing jewel which had a diamond setting.

The Advocate lost a chance to charge Mr. Kibler 25 cents for the notice but is glad to print this one for nothing, and is likewise pleased that the missing button has been restored to its owner.

A North End family has just been favored with a visit from the Stork. When the new daughter arrived an older child, aged 3, was told that the baby was her gift from Santa Claus. "Well, I told Santa Claus that I wanted a sled and if he don't bring it he can just take the baby back!"

AND HE ATE SEVEN.

A big man from a rural district stopped in front of a west side fruit store and inquired the price of bananas.

"This kind 14 for 10 cents."

"Oh, give me a nickel's worth. I don't want any more than I can eat right now."

ADVOCATE CONTEST

Fourteen boys and girls will be made happy next Wednesday night when the Advocate will award 14 prizes amounting to $100 cash. A list of the 14 leaders in the contest appears in another column. Each new subscription counts in the contest. The boys and girls will appreciate your help.

THE RUSH still continues at my store and since I have adopted the CASH or 30 DAY PLAN, ALL CUSTOMERS ARE TREATED JUST ALIKE. No one can sell goods at close prices on long time, so I have "cut that out," preferring to sell on CLOSE MARGINS and get my money in time to take the benefit of cash discounts. So everybody, regardless of politics, religious, color or whether you ARE WET OR DRY, may have the benefit of the LOW PRICES at my store.

I have SUGARED a great many people within the past ten days, but there are still a number of people who have not been able to get in, so I will CONTINUE to sell the best ARBUCKLES CANE SUGAR (not beet) at 5c. in 1 to 25 pound lots, and there are FULL 25 LBS IN EACH SACK, and ONLY COSTS YOU $1.25. Some of my competitors are telling you that my sacks are light weight, and that I am giving you beet instead of Cane Sugar. Now, every sane person knows that ARBUCKLES SUGAR IS MADE OF CANE, and that the lettering on the sacks is RED and that is just what I am selling. They must take you for a fool.

Prices on Sugar may change at any time and without notice, and the change will be for a higher price, so if you are interested come at once.

Mr. James E. Brunner, one of my new clerks, will be able to talk to our German friends.

FAMOUS BUILDING'S HISTORY.

Gatherings in Which Madison Square Garden Has Played a Large Part.

Madison square garden which has been put in the hands of a real estate firm for sale, and from its entertainments, stands out as one of the most famous buildings of New York city
from the architectural point of view.
It was designed by the late Stanford White, and he always declared it to be the structure which fitted in most perfectly with his ideals of architectural art. Its tower, topped by the figure of Diana, for long was the loftiest pinnacle in Manhattan, and although it is now surpassed by its near neighbor,
the Metropolitan Life tower, it still stands pre-eminent for grace and airiness.

The building is designed in the renaissance style and is built of buff brick and terra cotta. It is estimated to have cost nearly $3,000,000. It is divided into distinct parts. The theater, which was opened on Sept. 27, 1890,
with "Dr. Bill," has been under separate management. As a rule, it has been associated with light opera, such as "Madam Butterfly," and high class farce comedy.

Then there are the concert hall, which has not been used much of late years, and the roof garden. The last will always be associated with the murder of Stanford White by Harry K. Thaw during the first performance of a summer piece, "Mam'zelle Champagne," in 1906.

The principal part of the Garden
however, has always been the arena.
It is the only building of its kind in the city, and without it many of the most popular functions of New York
social life would have been impossible.
It was opened on June 16, 1890, with a concert by Edward Strauss' orchestra, and every year since then for a week in November it has been given up to the horse show, the official opening of New York's social season.

In the political life of the nation
Madison Square Garden has played a large part. Such rallies as greeted Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft in the last days of the recent campaign are examples of the immense gatherings which it has made possible. Carnegie hall may be more satisfactory to the speaker, but Madison Square Garden gives unrivaled opportunities for demonstrations of enthusiasm.

Sportsmen, electricians, business men and many others have used the arena for exhibitions. Athletic events of all sorts have come off within its walls,
including the six day bicycle races.
Barnum & Bailey, Buffalo Bill and other well known showmen have used it to delight New York and its children, and it has ever been the one resource of those who wished to give the people of Manhattan an entertainment on a really large scale.

This Garden replaced an older and inferior structure, famous, among other things, as being the scene of the prize fight for the championship of the world between John L. Sullivan and Charles Mitchell.

What about the deforestation of the Christmas tree, Mr. President.

A Picture Play.

The Household Fairy.
Have you heard of the household fairy sweet
Who keeps home so bright and neat,
Who enters the rooms of boys and girls
And finds lost marbles or smooths out curls,
Who mends the rent in a girl's frock
Or darns the hole in a tomboy's sock?
If you don't believe it is true, I say,
You may search and find her this very day
In your home.
You must not look for a maiden fair
With starry eyes and golden hair,
Her hair may be threaded with silver
gray,
But one glance of her eyes drives care
away,
And the touch of her hand is so soft and light
When it smooths out a place for your head at night.
If you know of some one just like this,
My household fairy you cannot miss—
It's mother! —St. Nicholas.

FLAGS FOR POSTOFFICES.

Representative Cocks Starts Campaign on Arrival in Washington.

"An American flag for every post-office" is the slogan that Representative Cocks of the First New York district took to Washington and if he can only convince Representative Overstreet that the bill if passed will not cost "a barrel of money" may carry the battle to victory. As it is, Mr. Overstreet, who is chairman of the committee on postoffices and post roads, is standing pat on his refusal to take the bill from its pigeonhole in his desk.

"I don't really care what it would cost," said Mr. Cocks, who represents the president's home district in congress. "I believe that every postoffice in the country and every one under the stars and stripes should float the flag from its roof. It is a patriotic object lesson for every school boy and girl to have before their eyes. It would be a good thing for the aliens who come over here to see as well, for to their eyes it would mean something. It would mean the power and dignity of the federal government. Jesse Overstreet thinks it would cost a barrel of money to carry out the provisions of the bill, but I say that I don't care what it costs. It is a patriotic duty that should be performed. If the government is too poor to pay the bill I'll bet the postmasters themselves would all to the last man agree to furnish the flags themselves."

The big toe is placed on the inside of the foot to act as a fulcrum in propelling the body.
To call the president a tree toad ought to make him hopping mad.

STOP STARVING YOUR STOMACH

YOU CAN EAT YOUR FAVORITE FOOD WITHOUT DREAD OF AN UPSET STOMACH.

Perfect Digestion Leaving Nothing to Ferment in Stomach and Form Gas Results From Diapepsin.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapepsin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

The harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness, or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of dyspepsia or indigestion.

Porto Rico's Christmas

Few Stockings—No Chimneys

Christmas for the Americans in Porto Rico is pretty much the same, so far as the observance of the day is concerned, as Christmas at home or anywhere else.

The chief difference is in those characteristics of the season that are due to or are influenced by the weather, which more nearly resembles that of the Fourth of July than a winter holiday.

There is the same spirit of good feeling, the same cheery greeting, the same happy experience for the little people in the shape of gifts from Santa Claus and that same more or less sincere determination on the part of their elders to forgive their enemies—whom sometimes they do.

Among the natives Christmas day is a church holiday only, and it is very generally observed by them as such, but it is not the occasion of family reunions nor the day of gifts, as with us.

The Porto Rican family gatherings occur and their Santa Claus makes his appearance on the 6th of January—"El dia de los Reyes," or "the day of the kings," commemorating the bringing of gifts to the infant Christ—but Kriss Kringle manifestly does not come down the chimney for the very good reason that there are no chimneys to Porto Rican houses, and for equally obvious reasons he does not bring his reindeer nor his sleigh.

Instead of hanging up their stockings the native children prepare a box filled with grass to represent a manger and place it outside their doors on the night of the 5th of January, just as the little Dutch children in Holland put out their wooden shoes.

Christmas will always be a church holiday to the natives, and El dia de los Reyes will also probably always be observed by them. But the Porto Rican is quick to pick up American ideas, and the observance of Christmas day is yearly taking on more of an American character.

One evidence of this is the growing custom, so common in the southern states especially, of evidencing one's appreciation of the occasion by the free use of tin horns and other agencies for the production of noises.

The first intimation one usually receives that the day has arrived is the result of an enthusiastic and determined attempt about 3 a. m. on the part of a native youngster to blow his lungs out through the small end of a tin horn, and his enthusiasm is in direct proportion to the size of his horn.

But as the old adage has it, "the better the day the better the deed," and the tin horn is only another expression of the time honored sentiment "Merry Christmas to you all."—Army and Navy Life.

A Little Lay Sermon

(By a Prominent Newark Man.)

The scene is in the city of Jerusalem about the 30th year of our Lord. Jesus had come from Galilee to Jerusalem to the feast of the Jews, probably the feast of the passover. The Disciples were not with Him, or, if they were, it is not mentioned. Probably He had passed the night at Bethany, with his friends Mary, Martha and Lazarus, and on that Sabbath morning had walked into Jerusalem. All we positively know is that He went up to Jerusalem to the feast of the Jews.

It may be supposed that the city was filled with visitors from all parts of Judea, and that the temple and contiguous buildings were crowded with the people. We cannot enter into the thoughts that filled His mind on that morning. We must content ourselves with what He said and did, as they are recorded. We may, however, be sure, that His mind and heart and soul were filled with love and compassion for the whole multitude. He was not recognized. No one suspected that the Son of God was there among them.

There was in Jerusalem, apart from the temple, by the Sheep Market, a pool, called Bethesda. It had five porches, which it is supposed, were approached by steps which led to near the level of the water in the pool, where there were platforms, and that the porches, steps and platforms were ample in space, for on them lay a great multitude of unfortunate folk—the blind, the halt and withered. The peculiarity of this pool was that on certain seasons (or intervals) an Angel went down into it and troubled the water, and whoever first stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

Among the men at the porches was an impotent person who had an infirmity for eight and thirty years, and so could neither help himself, nor get any one to help him when the water was troubled. Possibly he had been there for years in that condition. We can imagine that his heart, through hope deferred, was almost broken.

Just before the water had been again troubled, but not for him, a man, whom he did not know, stood upon him and discerning his disappointed helplessness, approached him, and said (we can almost hear His gentle voice) "Wilt thou be made whole?" The man made no direct answer, but said pitifully and naturally, and perhaps with no thought that there was any other cure, "Sir, I have no man when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steps down before me." Jesus said unto him, "Rise, take up thy bed and walk." We can imagine the astonishment of the man, but at once he found that he was made whole, and immediately took up his bed and walked. There were no thanks, for Jesus conveyed himself away, among the surrounding multitude. Observe, that Jesus did not say, "Wait till the water is again troubled and I will help you to step into the pool." The man would naturally expect that. But He said rise (now) and take up thy bed and walk. It seemed good to the Lord to add to the miracle of the troubled water the greater miracle of at once making whole the man with the infirmity of 38 years.

The Jews, not the common people round about, but, as we suppose, the Pharisees, seeing the man carrying away his bed, said to him, "It is not lawful for you to carry your bed on the Sabbath day." The poor man, probably to justify himself and in that way to rid himself of these strenuous Jews, said to them: "He that made me whole, the same said to me, 'take up thy bed and walk.'" Asked what man it was, he said he asked not who he was.

But the Lord did not intend that this incident should go unnoticed. He found the man in the Temple, where, we hope, he had gone to give thanks for his cure, and said to him, that being made whole to go and sin no more. Then the man knew that Jesus was the healer, and probably intending to honor Him, told the Jews that he was the Man Thereupon the Jews persecuted Him and sought to slay Him, the charge then made against Him being that He had on the Sabbath day made the cure.

It would, therefore, appear that this incident was intended by our Lord in part to show His compassion for the poor man, and in part to introduce the striking exposition of His divine character and mission, which is found in John, in the 5th chapter, beginning with the 1st verse and continuing to the end of the chapter, which I commend to the reader as worthy of his profound consideration.

Would Mortgage the Farm.

A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd, by name, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve cures the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c at Frank D. Hall's drug store.

POLICE COURT

"He has robbed me before, but I never did anything about it," said A. W. Athy Saturday morning. "He is my son but I'm getting tired of losing every thing I own." Mr. Athy was in the mayor's office with the intention of filing an affidavit against his son John.

Last Thursday night while he was sleeping on a couch at his home, he says his son went through his pocket and robbed him of a gold watch he had in his pocket. Saturday morning he located the missing timepiece in a pawnshop where the son had pawned it for $4. He paid $22 for the "tucker" when it was new.

Since he took the watch the son has not been seen and his father does not know where he is. A younger son, 14 years of age, left home with his brother and has not returned.

"Coshooton's a dry burg, so I came to Newark," was the information volunteered by James Gill when arrested by Officer Brown Friday, when he arrested Gill for being decidedly the worse for the booze he had taken on board. He was handed $1 and costs.

Charles Hagerty, an old regular, got the idea in his head that since Newark was going dry in a short time he had better make the most of his opportunities, so Charles, proceeded to the ears when arrested, sought to accumulate an awful jag. The jag was the "bad" kind and Charles grew disorderly before he was taken up by Officers Carroll and Callan.

Dick Athy, charged by officers of the Panhandle railroad, with stealing rapiron, was arrested yesterday by Officers Gorman and McClure. Athy was drunk and as there seemed to be a mistake in his arrest on the charge of larceny, he was only given $1 and costs and committed.

come incensed at four young women who passed him while riding horseback near Washington, is given by several young women of the National Park seminary, who arrived here on their way home to spend the holidays.

The girls, despite the fact they had been warned they would be disciplined for talking about the affair, not only said the President had scared the four young girls who had galloped past him, slapping the horse of one in his anger, but they declared Miss Ethel Roosevelt, daughter of the President, took a part in the affair, severely rebuking the girls for riding
the Roosevelt party too hard. Mr.
Roosevelt, they said, finally caused her daughter to stop.

OHIO GIRL

Tells How the President Almost Unseated One of the Riders.

Marion, O., Dec. 19.—Miss Ruth Fisher, a local society leader and a student at National Park seminary, Forest Glen, Md., today returned from school and told the complete version of the rebuke administered to a party of the school girls by President Roosevelt. She stated Roosevelt with a regular "San Juan" charge, rode into their midst while they were cut riding. Miss Margaret Kierstedt, of St. Louis, was almost unseated when the President's whip struck her horse.

Drawing rein after some distance ahead, the President awaited the party and called them down unmerciful-ly for not giving him the whole road. He was later joined by Mrs.
Roosevelt and Miss Ethel, the latter's attitude being even worse than her father's. Miss Fisher condemned the ill-mannered actions and statements of the fiery sage of Sagamore.

Miss Nellie Jones, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. J. C. Jones, 88 Cassius street, student at National Park seminary, was interviewed by an Advocate reporter this morning, but Miss Jones, who arrived home Friday morning to spend the holidays, had left school before the incident referred to occurred and knew nothing of the trouble.

call From Presbyterian.

Cochran, O., Dec. 19.—Rev. Chas.
S. Robertson, pastor of Grace M. E.

THRILLING WAS EXPERIENCE OF DELIVERY CLERK

Jano Buckland, Employee of Wright Bros., at Granville, Comes Near Losing His Life.

Granville, Dec. 19.—Jano Buckland,
a delivery clerk employed at the grocery store of Wright Bros., had a thrilling experience on Friday, and one that came near costing him his life as well as that of a valuable horse. Mr. Buckland had loaded several barrels with rubbish, the accumulations of several days around the store, and had driven down to the Kaccoon creek for the purpose of dumping it into the stream. Upon reaching a point near the old Columbus bridge he backed the wagon close to the edge of a steep embankment and was in the act of emptying a barrel when the horse suddenly took a notion to back. The result was that the wagon went over the embankment, pulling the horse after it, and the entire outfit landed in the deep water, ten feet below. Mr. Buckland managed to save himself by jumping. A peculiar fact is that that when the horse went over the embankment he turned a complete somersault and landed in the water with the wagon on top of him. The horse nearly drowned but finally succeeded in getting his head above water, but it was several hours before he could be rescued. Ralph Smoots finally went into the water and cut the harness from the animal and he was pulled out of the water
by a team of horses. It was found that the horse was badly injured and it was with the greatest difficulty that he was taken to the stable where a veterinary surgeon worked with him
all night.

At the Methodist church Sunday
the subject for the morning service will be "Good Tidings of Great Joy," and for the evening "A Story of Love." Class meeting will be held at 11 o'clock. Junior League meeting at

REMEMBER PUBLIC LIBRARY

To the People of Newark:

Although your public library has only been open for three or four months, it has certainly proved itself worthy of your confidence and support. Of 1,500 or more volumes which have been purchased or donated about 1200 at this writing are out; so you can easily see that we need more books to supply the increasing calls and demands that are made on us from day to day. We have a goodly number of periodicals on our table
but more would be heartily welcomed.
—particularly your subscriptions for the Scientific American, the World of Today, and the World's Work.
Wherefore we hope that in making up your "Christmas Gifts" you will generously remember the wants of the library which has been established in your midst, and make it

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This in Newark.

Scores of Newark people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

Amos Frey, Toboso seven miles east of Newark, O., says: "I have been entirely free from kidney trouble
since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me over eleven years ago. Prior to that time I suffered severely from pains through the small of my back and loins which were always aggravated by the least exertion. If I sat in one position for any length of time, my back became so sore that I suffered untold misery. I used several remedies, but the relief obtained was slight and I continued to grow worse until I was in a serious condition. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and as they were highly recommended for complaints similar to mine, I procured a box at Crayton's drug store. They acted just as represented, going directly to the seat of my trouble and ridding me of all pain. I have always highly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills and deem it a pleasure to do so whenever an opportunity presents itself."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

AMUSEMENTS

MARRIED FOR MONEY.

A small audience was given a pleasant surprise at the Auditorium theater last evening. "Married for Money" was not a melodrama. Nobody was killed, there were no cigarette-smoking Mexicans, no hair-breadth escapes from the teeth of a buzz-saw or a canvas railroad engine—all on those blood-curdling situations were missing, probably much to the disappointment of the gallery Merriwell readers.

"Married for Money" is one of the cleanest shows that has played at the Auditorium for popular prices. The story is an interesting one, dealing with present day corporation magnates and the private life of a character well known to the financial world. It tells how the magnate, on becoming successful, discards his wife for an actress, whom it is later shown, married him for his money after he had divorced his first wife. The first wife becomes wealthy and offers her former husband her assistance after he had failed in business and his actress has shown her real colors. The play ends by the first wife providing for her husband, yet refusing to be more to him than a friend, because, she says, she realizes the different paths for each of them were correctly pointed out by her husband when he discarded her.

The piece was very well acted. Mr. Kenzie Higgins, as John Stowe, the magnate, was very pleasing and proved himself an able interpreter of the role, while Marion Sherwood, as his wife, Ellen Stowe, was at all times equal to the part. Miss Barnsworth, as Adelle Nielson, the actress, did not look the part any more than she acted it. Overworking of the role spoiled it, and her general makeup was not pleasing as it might have been. The other characters were very satisfactory.

The play teaches a good moral and presents it in good shape.

DANNY DOUGHERTY HERE.

Danny Dougherty, the ex-bantam weight pugilist of the world, was in Newark this week. In fact Danny left town Saturday morning. He is in advance of Rowland and Clifford's "Jane Eyre," which appears here at the Auditorium theater on Christmas day.

KEITH'S ATTRACTIONS.

Newark visitors in Columbus next week can spend a couple of hours very pleasantly at the handsome Keith theater where they will witness some of the highest class acts on the vaudeville stage.

Charles E. Evans and company will present the sketch, "It's Up to You, Williams," written by George Arliss. It is said to be one of the cleverest sketches ever written and is a happy medium for Mr. Evans' humor and the business and dialogue go on with clock like smoothness. Julius Tannen, DeCora, The Golden Globe, Long Aere Quartet and a number of other high class acts go to make up an excellent bill. The Keith is located on East Cay street just off High street.

THE PRESS AGENT SAYS:

"The Cow Puncher," a four act drama of the West by Hal Reid, will open a matinee and night engagement at the Auditorium theater today. It is under the direction of W. F. Dunn and contains many new features. The play is original in plot and the dramatic climaxes are powerful and intense. The cast numbers 20 and is made up of some of the best known artists in the dramatic. Several unique and new specialties are introduced during the action of the play, and the scenery and electrical effects are the best money can procure. Watch for the man with the rope.

The orchestra and orchestral music are said to be the bete noir with Al G. Field, the premier minstrel of America, and he has provided generously for the production he is making this year in the matter of stringed, brass and reed instruments. Mr. Field's vocal director, Paul Le Londe, has a unique command of harmony and counterpoint, and he has interwoven into the splendid spectacle and thrillingly beautiful first part of this year's minstrel show, rich and manifold textures of modern orchestral compositions. The extraordinary vamatte comedy, "Jane Eyre," stands at the forefront. It is an original dramatic conception of Charlotte Bronte's well known book of the same name, by Peter G. Piatti. The scenery is beautiful, the best capable, and every detail has been looked after to make a perfect production. The scenes of the play, laid in England, are picturesque, the characters are natural, bright and human, hence never depress, even in the serious moments. Every part is in competent and experienced hands and Miss Pearl White heads the company. "Jane sentation of the 'Al G. Field' Greater Minstrel show this season. The Al G. Field minstrel will appear at the Auditorium theater for two performances, Saturday, December 26.

Among the big play hits of the season, Rowland and Clifford's dramatic success and was well attended. The play is an entertaining little comedy, entitled, "My Uncle From India," which is really the comedy, "The Private Secretary," under a different title. It was staged in the usual good taste exhibited by Miss Florence King, and every participant proved an able entertainer. The following students were members of the cast, each of whom deserves special mention: Sherwood Miller, Kenneth Farmer, Dudley Miller, Misses Bessie Smith, Annette Besuden, Selma Bieberbach, Stella Emery, Walter Trittipo, John Baird, Paul Russell, Donovin Palmer and Will Wohl.

"MY UNCLE FROM INDIA."

The play given Friday night at the High school auditorium by the seniors of the school, was a pleasing season, Rowland and Clifford's dramatic success and was well attended. The

JANUARY 5TH EXCURSION TO NEW MEXICO

Owing to an unexpected business engagement it has become necessary to postpone the New Mexico excursion scheduled for December 15 until Tuesday, January 5.

January is an ideal time to visit New Mexico, the land of opportunity for the investor or homeseeker and the terms upon which Licking county people may take this trip on January 5 should not be overlooked. The party will make but one change of trains and that at Chicago. The round trip is $41.25 and this money will be refunded to all buyers of land. It will pay any one who has a little money for investment or any one who is seeking a place for personal activity to go to New Mexico and see what John Tucker has to offer. The prices of this land are right and the terms are easy. The land is very productive, is located near the Santa Fe railway and it is growing in value. One can't miss it by buying at present prices. For full information regarding the January 5 excursion address John Tucker, 71 1-2 East Main street, Newark, Ohio. d12&19 wk17

BANK CLERK HAS SKIPPED

AUGUST SCHREIBER OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE BANK TAKES FRENCH LEAVE.

He Also Takes Certain Funds, but the Amount Cannot be Ascertained. Bank Will Make Good.

Several days ago a mild sensation was created by the report that a well-known business man had left the city and that nothing was known of his whereabouts. The mystery is explained by the following card from Mr. O. C. Jones, manager of the Foreign Exchange bank of this city. Mr. Jones said:

"I was called out of the city Tuesday morning, and left on an early morning train. Before leaving I called at the Foreign Exchange bank to tell my clerk, Mr. August Schreiber, that I would be gone for several days, and if he needed me to call up John Groce's steamship office in Columbus. As I am associated with Mr. Groce in conducting the steamship offices in Newark in connection with the Foreign Exchange bank. On my return home Wednesday I found that my trusted clerk had disappeared, taking with him, as I supposed, the key to the Foreign Exchange box in the safe. I have had experts work on the safe, trying to get it open, for two days and this morning received word from Stephan Schreiber, brother of the missing man, giving me the information as to where I could find the key to the box in the safe. The information regarding the key was found to be correct, and the key was found in a box in another part of the office, having been hidden there by Mr. Schreiber. With it the box in the safe was unlocked. I found everything intact, with the exception of a number of drafts, which he had sold and received the money, which drafts were to be sent to Europe, the proceeds to be used by the recipients across the water to buy Christmas presents. I have notified all the New York offices with which I do business to pay all the drafts issued by Schreiber, so that the people on the other side of the water will not be disappointed in receiving their Christmas presents. I do not care to state the amount of Mr. Schreiber's theft. I hope, when I meet the man who has done me wrong, that he will explain to me what he has done with the money. Any one having claims against me connected with this transaction, can have them properly adjusted by calling at the bank under the postoffice. I wish this statement signed by Jones & Groce, by O. C. Jones."
